BIOGRAPHY

Justina Torello has been serving as the Administrator for R&G Services since 2014. In 2018, she advanced to Vice President at C&R Development, overseeing the company's day-to-day operations alongside the President. In her capacity, Ms. Torello collaborates closely with the firm's staff and construction managers to secure necessary permits and certifications. She also provides HR support to both the President and the CFO.

In addition to her role at C&R Development, Ms. Torello is Vice President of Operations for the Curtis & Sheila Robinson Foundation. She leads community engagement initiatives for philanthropic endeavors and is responsible for the planning, coordination, and successful execution of all foundation events, including post-event follow-up activities. Furthermore, Ms. Torello evaluates grant applications submitted to the Foundation and liaises for necessary supplementary assistance.
